They had two sons, Borys and John, born in and The Congo Diary is more an academic piece - it states bluntly Conrad's land journey up the Congo from the sea port to Kinchasa. A haze rested on the low shores that ran out to sea in vanishing flatness.

Conrad's diary was much more interesting to me - again, no doubt, because it was not yet finished. This book is not yet featured on Listopia. They wouldn't have finished the book. Oct 26, Pages. Conrad traveled to Mauritius and Constantinople, worked on wool clippers from London to Australia, and sailed the waters of the Far East.
